Third edition of The Good Practice Event

Best Good Practice 2009

BPM-Lux

A unique frame of exchange and discussions, dedicated to enterprises.

On Tuesday 19 May 2009, during the third edition of The Good Practice Event, with the topic : " Good management practices through the crisis "

The participating SME's, could exchange and discover good organizational and innovative management practices.

Organized by the Centre de Recherche Public Henri Tudor and the Chambre de Commerce – with the support by the Chambre des Métiers et de Luxinnovation – the good practice event has allowed the SME's, SME's consultants, and public institutions at the service of the SME's, to network and share their good, if not their « best », practices. A total of 25 stands representing Luxembourg, Belgian and French companies, presented a diversified panel of practices exchanged also with numerous visitors of the Greater Region.

BPM-Lux, was honored at the end of this event, voted by a large majority of visitors, when called to elect the best good practice 2009.

BPM-Lux, was awarded with the first price by Mr. Jeannot Krecké, Ministre de l'Economie et du Commerce extérieur.

In fact, BPM-Lux introduces an answer to the developing market, with their logistical products and service offer for the Luxembourg companies, taking into consideration the needs expressed by regional SME's, integrating in their proposed solutions, crossborder issues, affecting Luxembourg.
